Dear Parents / Carers

Re: GCSE History revision guides

Following our productive evening on Thursday, 11th September, I wanted to follow up on the many excellent questions we had regarding GCSE History revision. It's fantastic to see so many of you so engaged and proactively supporting your young person's studies.

To help your child prepare for their upcoming exams, I've compiled a list of recommended revision resources. These materials are tailored to the Edexcel exam board curriculum and cover the key topics on the exam.

1. How do I make a revision timetable for my exams? - BBC Bitesize
2. GCSE History - Edexcel - BBC Bitesize Here you will find podcasts, revision notes and quizzes to dip in and out of as and when.
3. <https://youtu.be/8fmPkEPhNYA?feature=shared> Here is a walkthrough of exam techniques, tips and tricks.
4. Oxford Revise- Edexcel GCSE History. These books are priced around £5.99 each and are fantastic revision guides to work through. They are available on Amazon. They are available for Crime and Punishment, Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, Weimar and Nazi Germany and the American West.
5. Seneca Learning: Your young person would have been given a sign up for this excellent online revision site from their History teacher. If there are any problems with this, just let me know.
6. How To Revise For History GCSE
7. [Edexcel \(Pearson\) GCSE History Past Papers \[PDFs & Mark Schemes\]](#) This is an excellent way to revise- and we are always happy to mark anything you have a go at.

We're all here to support your child in achieving their full potential. If you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Best wishes,
